Presents
The Peggy Lee Show

When I hear Peggy Lee sing, I am once again impressed by her superb musicianship and the unique style that was hers alone.

She was a brilliant jazz musician. One who always captivated her audiences with her performance and looks. She collaborated with many well known musicians as well as composed her own music, producing many jazz standards.

She rose to prominence during the big band era, singing around the world with acclaimed bands of Benny Goodman, Count Basie, Duke Ellington, Louis Armstrong and others.

Always true to her own style, Peggy continued to evolve as one of the world's greatest jazz singers.

Linda Lee Michelet

The Linda Lee Michelet Big Band recreates for you this incredible era of great jazz music, the classic jazz arrangements of Quincey Jones, Bill Homan, Nelson Riddle and the timelessly beautiful lyrics performed by Ms. Michelet.
